

COMMITTEE SIGN UP FORM FOR 2024

Do you want to be involved in the decisions that affect your business and livelihood? Would you like to participate in planning activities? Then join a BNAR committee. Select the area where you have interest in participation. Each committee/task force/project has a planned set of objectives to work toward and can be found in the BNAR Strategic Plan.

Government Affairs

Identify key issues and be industry advocates; encourage and develop member involvement in the political process, real property affordability and homeownership rights.

RPAC

Spread the word about the value of RPAC and increase contributions and contributors.

Education

Provide personal and professional development.

Best Practices

Identify different business issues affecting the industry. Identify and educate members on issues that affect real estate.

Forms & Contracts

When necessary, review real estate forms & contracts that are consistent with law and uniform in nature.

Technology

Review and educate members on real estate technology and products/tools used.

Agents Day

Participate in the planning of our annual networking event.

Professional Standards

Grievance

Note: Limited number and diversified companies on committee. Members chosen to be on these committees are required to take the NYSAR Professional Standards Training.

DEI Committee

We live in an increasingly diverse world, one that reflects change and progress in our society today. As Realtors, it is imperative that we recognize that Diversity, Equity & Inclusion are more than buzzwords. Rather, it strengthens us as an Association and needs to be our culture moving forward. DEI awareness and initiatives impacts both leadership and our membership. Why is it essential? Quite simply it's the right thing to do and it can drive innovation and organizational success.

What other Ad Hoc committee may be formed during the year that you would be interested in?
