§ 154-14. Rights of landlords.

This article does not prohibit a landlord from refusing to rent a housing accommodation to a person if one or more of the following conditions are met:

- A. The person's source of income is unstable, or insufficient to pay the rent, or the source of said income is from an unlawful source; or

- B. The tenant has been unable to make timely rental payments in all or part of the preceding 18 months; or
- C. The person has been the source of past complaints from neighbors in all or part of the preceding 18 months, except where those complaints can be reasonably attributed to harassment or discriminatory intent; or
- D. The person intends to occupy the housing accommodation with a larger number of persons than can be accommodated under occupancy standards established by law; or
- E. For any other reason not prohibited by the laws of the United States, the State of New York or the discriminatory practices set forth in this article, provided that such refusal is based upon legally permitted criteria and those criteria are applied equally to all prospective tenants.

§ 154-15. Promotion of fair housing goals.

Within 120 days of the effective date of this article, all landlords owning [more than 20] rental units within the City of Buffalo, and all real estate offices within the City of Buffalo selling [more than 20] residential housing [accommodations within a calendar year], shall be required to use the equal opportunity logotype or a statement of equal opportunity housing on applications and marketing materials and to display in rental or real estate offices a public notice of equal opportunity in housing.

§ 154-16. Notification to multiple dwelling owners.

Every owner required to obtain a certificate of occupancy as detailed in Buffalo Code § 129-6 shall also complete a certification before said certificate of occupancy may be issued that the owner is fully aware of the Fair Housing Ordinance for the City of Buffalo and has received a copy of said ordinance. The Department of Permit and Inspection Services shall ensure that such owners receive a copy of the Fair Housing Ordinance.

§ 154-17. Unlawful discriminatory practices.

It shall be unlawful for any person or entity engaged in the sale or rental of housing to do the following:

- A. Refuse to sell, rent, lease, make unavailable for inspection, sale or rental, or otherwise to deny or withhold from any person or persons housing accommodation because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, disability or reliance upon a therapy dog or cat, familial status, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military status or source of income.
- B. Discriminate against any person in the terms, conditions or privileges of sale, rental or lease of any housing accommodation or in the furnishing of facilities or services in connection therewith because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, disability or reliance upon a therapy dog or cat, familial status, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military status or source of income.
- C. [To print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or publication, or to use any form or application for the purchase, rental or lease of a housing accommodation or to make any record or inquiry in connection with the prospective purchase, rental or lease of a housing accommodation which expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification or discrimination as to race, creed, color, national origin, sex, disability or reliance upon a therapy dog or cat, familial status, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military status or source of income.]To print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or publication, or to use any form of promotion for the purchase, rental or lease of a housing accommodation or to make any record or inquiry in connection with the prospective purchase, rental or lease of a housing accommodation which indicates any preference, limitation, or specification or discrimination as to race, creed, color, national origin, sex, disability or reliance upon a therapy dog or cat, familial status, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military status or source of income, or an intention to make any such preference; and/or which fails to include an equal housing opportunity logotype, statement, or slogan as a means of educating the home-seeking public that the property is available to all persons regardless of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. For all print or space advertisements, the Equal Housing Opportunity logo shall be of a size delineated by Table 1 attached as Appendix A of this subsection. For all other advertisements, the Equal Housing Opportunity logo shall be of a size at least equal to the largest of the other logotypes and should be bold and clearly visible. An example of equal housing opportunity logotype, statement, and slogan is attached as part of Appendix A of this subsection.

- D. To induce or attempt to induce any person to sell or rent any housing accommodation by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of persons of a particular race, creed, color, national origin, sex, disability or reliance upon a therapy dog or cat, familial status, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military status or source of income.
- E. Refusal to permit, at the expense of a person with disabilities, reasonable modifications of existing premises, if such modifications may be necessary to afford such person full enjoyment of the housing accommodation, and a refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices or services which may be necessary to afford a person with disabilities equal opportunity to use and enjoy the housing accommodation.
- F. To deny access or otherwise to discriminate against a blind person, a hearing impaired person or a person with another disability because he or she is accompanied by a dog that has been trained to work or perform specific tasks for the benefit of such person by a professional guide dog, hearing dog or service dog training center or professional guide dog, hearing dog or service dog trainer, or to discriminate against such professional guide dog, hearing dog or service dog trainer engaged in such training of a dog for use by a person with a disability, whether or not accompanied by the person for whom the dog is being trained. This section shall apply regardless of breed, or any other type of therapy dog or cat.
- G. To incite, compel or coerce the doing of any acts forbidden by this article, or to retaliate or discriminate against any person or entity because that person or entity has filed a complaint or testified or assisted in any proceeding commenced under this article.
- H. For any bank, savings or loan association, insurance company or other entity whose business consists in whole or part of the making of loans and arranging of financing for housing or secured by real property or the issuance of property insurance to discriminate in the issuance or terms and conditions of a loan or insurance policy because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, disability or reliance upon a therapy dog or cat, familial status, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military status or lawful source of income.

§ 154-18. Exemptions.

The provisions of this article shall apply to all housing accommodations within the City of Buffalo as well as land zoned for residential uses except the following:

- A. The rental of a housing accommodation on a parcel that contains housing accommodations for not more than three households living independently, if the owner resides in one of the dwelling units, or the rental of a housing accommodation on a parcel that contains more than one residential dwelling in which no dwelling is for more than three households or less living independently, if the owner resides in one of the dwelling units;
- B. The restriction of the rental of rooms in a housing accommodation to persons of the same sex;
- C. The rental of a room or rooms in a housing accommodation designed in such a way that the occupants would be required to share part of their living quarters with another occupant or occupants not of their own choice; and
- D. Restriction of the sale, rental or lease of a housing accommodation exclusively to persons 55 years of age or older and their spouses with respect to age and familial status only.

§ 154-19. Enforcement.

- A. The Mayor of the City of Buffalo shall designate a Fair Housing Officer to receive, investigate and/or refer complaints under this article to a qualified fair housing enforcement agency certified to investigate and handle fair housing complaints.

- B. Any person or organization, whether or not an aggrieved party, may file with the Fair Housing Officer a complaint alleging violation of this article within one year from the date of the occurrence. Such complaint shall be in writing, [which] and shall state the name and address of the person alleged to have committed the unlawful discriminatory practice complained of and which shall set forth the particulars thereof and contain such other information and in such form as required by the Fair Housing Officer.
- C. The Fair Housing Officer shall notify the accused party within [30]60 days of the date of the [filing] receipt of a final and complete [the] complaint and request the accused party to answer the complaint in writing within 20 days after the mailing of such notice. The date of the mailing of the Fair Housing Officer's notification shall be endorsed thereon. The Fair Housing Officer shall, thereafter, make a prompt investigation in connection with the complaint sufficient to determine whether there is probable cause to establish discriminatory conduct.
- D. If, in the judgment of the Fair Housing Officer, a conciliation agreement would satisfactorily resolve the complaint, he/she shall include in such agreement provisions requiring the accused party to refrain from unlawful discriminatory practices and may include such compensation and/or affirmative relief as is agreed upon by the parties. Conciliation agreements shall not be subject to confidentiality agreements.
- E. Within [120] 180 days of the date of the [filing] receipt of the final and complete complaint, the Fair Housing Officer shall conclude the investigation and determine whether there is probable cause to support a finding of discriminatory conduct by the accused party under this article and shall refer the matter as detailed in § 154-20 below.

§ 154-20. Penalties for offenses.

- A. Upon certification by the Fair Housing Officer that there has been an affirmative finding of probable cause of discriminatory practice, the Fair Housing Officer may:
- (1) Request the Corporation Counsel to file an action against the accused party, in a court of competent jurisdiction, seeking the imposition of the following penalties:
 - (a) [A fine not exceeding $1,500 for each offense, with each act of discrimination being considered a separate offense; and/or] A fine not exceeding two-thousand and five hundred dollars ($2,500) for the first instance of discrimination in violation of this article; plus, a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), for each finding of a subsequent act of discrimination in violation of this article. Each act of discrimination shall be considered a separate offense; and/or
 - (b) Subsequent violation. Any person found to have previously violated this article shall be subject to a fine not exceeding five-thousand dollars ($5,000) for the first instance of discrimination in violation of this article; plus, a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each subsequent finding of discrimination in violation of this article. Each act of discrimination shall be considered a separate offense; and/or
 - (c) Revocation or suspension of any license or permit issued by the City of Buffalo necessary to the operation of the housing accommodation(s) in question, and any other equitable relief necessary to effect the purposes of this article; and/or
 - (d) All costs, expenses and disbursements incurred by the City of Buffalo in effecting compliance with this article; and/or

- (e) Such other relief directed by a court of appropriate jurisdiction; and/or
- (2) Request a qualified fair housing enforcement agency to commence a civil action or proceeding for injunctive relief, damages, and other appropriate relief in law or equity against a person who violates this article. In any such action or proceeding, the court, in its discretion, may allow the party commencing such action or proceeding, if such party prevails, a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the costs.
- B. The Corporation Counsel may seek a contempt order from a court of appropriate jurisdiction, if necessary, to enforce a conciliation agreement or penalties imposed under this article.
- C. [The aggrieved party] The Corporation Counsel may commence a civil action or proceeding for injunctive relief, damages, and other appropriate relief in law or equity against a person who violates this article. In any such action or proceeding, the court, in its discretion, may allow for the party commencing such action or proceeding, if such party prevails, a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the costs.
- D. Nothing in this provision shall obviate, prevent, or otherwise alter, a Complainant's right to commence a separate and distinct civil action or proceeding for injunctive relief, damages, and other appropriate relief in law or equity against a person who violates this article. No agreement entered into as part of conciliation between the City of Buffalo and the person who violates this article shall be binding upon the Complainant.

§ 154-21. Annual report.

The Fair Housing Officer shall prepare an annual report detailing the work performed, including a statistical analysis of the caseload, a summary of dispositions of complaints filed and/or referred to housing agencies, and recommendations regarding fair housing practices. This report shall be submitted to the Mayor and filed with the City Clerk no later than March 1 of each year. Copies shall also be sent to the Commissioner of the New York State Division of Human Rights, the Attorney General of the State of New York, and the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

§ 154-22. Other remedies.

Nothing in this article shall limit or abridge the right of a complainant to pursue any other remedies that may be available under the laws of the State of New York, the United States or any other applicable jurisdiction.

§ 154-23. Construction of provisions.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to invalidate or limit any law of the State of New York, the United States or any other jurisdiction that grants, guarantees or protects the same rights that are granted, guaranteed or protected by this article.

§ 154-24. Severability.

If any part of this article shall, for any reason, be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not impair or invalidate the remainder of this article.

- Section 1: Insofar as the provisions of this ordinance amendment are inconsistent with the provisions of any other ordinance amendment or act, the provisions of this ordinance amendment shall be controlling.
- Section 2: This Ordinance Amendment shall take effect once it is duly ratified pursuant to City Charter § 3-19.
